Gottlieb Is Speaker on Vietnam

ARLINGTON — Dr. Sanford Gottlieb, Political Action Director of the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE), will present his views of the situation in Viet Nam at the Unitarian Church of Arlington on Sunday. The talk will be included in both services, at 9:15 and 11:15 a.m.

Dr. Gottlieb served as adviser to the interdenominational group of clergymen who visited South Viet Nam this year, on a fact-finding mission sponsored by the Fellowship of Reconciliation. On his way to and from Viet Nam, he met in Paris and Algiers with officials of North Viet Nam and the South Vietnamese National Liberation Front.

A graduate of Dartmouth with a degree in labor studies from the University of Paris, he became a labor organizer and editor in New York City. Later he was Administrative Assistant to the President of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO. He lives in Kensington, Md. with his wife and three children.
